Intro:

D7             G             D7                      G
When dad and mother, discovered one another
D7                   G                                     Cm                             G
They dreamed of the day when they,- would love and honor and obey
C
And during all their modest spooning
                      D7
They'd blush and speak of honeymooning
                                  G               A7               D7
And if your memory recalls, they spoke of Niagara Falls
G                     D7                   G
But today, my darling, today, when you meet the one you love
                      A7 walk down
You say...

D7      G                                             Am7  D7
Come fly with me, let's fly let's fly away,
G                               Bm                                 Am7                Cm
If you can use, some exotic booze, There's a bar in far Bombay,
G                     Am7         D7             G             D7
Come fly with me, we'll fly we'll fly away
G                                  Am7               D7
Come fly with me, let's float down to Peru,
G                               Bm                                    Am7                    Cm
In llama land, there's a one man band, And he'll toot his flute for you,
G                           D7                         G
Come fly with me, we'll float down in the blue

Eb                                              Fm6                             Eb      Fm6
Once I get you up there, where the air is rarefied, We'll just glide, starry eyed
Eb                                  D
Once I get you up there, I'll be holding you so near
                      A7                           D7
You may hear, angels cheer - because were together
G                                                Am7  D7
Weather wise it's such a lovely day
G                                                Bm                                C     Cm
Just say the words, and we'll beat the birds down to Acapulco Bay
G                     D7                   G             E7
It's perfect, for a flying honeymoon - they say
                      A7                       D7                   G
Come fly with me, we'll fly we'll fly away
