

Rock of Ages, Cleft for Me

Augustus M. Toplady & Thomas Hastings 1763

Isaiah 26:4 Trust in the Lord forever, for the Lord, the Lord himself, is the Rock eternal.

F                    Bb        F                    C7        F
Rock of Ages, cleft for me, let me hide myself in thee;
                  C7                    F                    C7                    F
Let the water and the blood, from thy wounded side which flowed,
                  Bb        F                    C7        F
Be of sin the double cure; save from wrath and make me pure.

F                    Bb        F                    C7        F
Not the labors of my hands can fulfill thy law's commands;
                  C7                    F                    C7                    F
Could my zeal no respite know, could my tears forever flow,
                  Bb        F                    C7        F
All for sin could not atone; thou must save, and thou alone.

F                    Bb        F                    C7        F
Nothing in my hand I bring, simply to the cross I cling;
                  C7                    F                    C7                    F
Naked, come to thee for dress; helpless, look to thee for grace;
                  Bb        F                    C7        F
Foul, I to the fountain fly; wash me, Savior, or I die.

F                    Bb        F                    C7        F
While I draw this fleeting breath, when mine eyes shall close in death,
                  C7                    F                    C7                    F
When I soar to worlds unknown, see thee on thy judgment throne,
                  Bb        F                    C7        F
Rock of Ages, cleft for me, let me hide myself in thee.
