(Verse 1)
C                  G7            C          G7            C                  G7            C
Once she dressed in silks and lace, Owned a Rolls Royce car;
F                                  G6            C                         F                  G7            C
Now she seems quite out of place, like a fallen star.
C             G7             C         G7            C       G7        C
Draped around my kitchen sink, Happy as can be,
G       D7         G                         D7                      G  G7
I just have to stop and think, Why she fell for me.
C                   G7           C            G7      C                  G7     Gdim
I’m not much to look at; nothin’ to see, Just glad I’m livin’ and lucky to be
D7                      Fm6                C        D7              G7
I got a woman, crazy for me, She’s funny that way.
C             G7     C                   G7          C       G7        C
I can’t save a dollar, ain’t worth a cent, She doesn’t holler she’d live in a tent,
D7                    Fm6                 C        G7             C
I got a woman crazy for me, She’s funny that way.
Fm6                                               C
Tho’ she loves to work and slave for me every day,
D7                                             G7
She’d be so much better off if I went away;
C                   G7       C                   G7     C                   G7                Gdim
But why should I leave her, why should I go, She’d be unhappy without me I know,
D7                          Fm6                C        G7             C
I’ve got a woman crazy for me, She’s funny that way.

(Verse 2)
C                  G7          C      G7      C   G7          C
She should have the very best, Anyone can see;
F                                G6           C       F    G7           C
Still she’s different from the rest, satisfied with me.
C             G7     C              G7          C       G7        C
While I worry, plan and scheme, Over what to do,
G       D7         G                         D7                      G  G7
Can’t help feeling it’s a dream, Too good to be true.
C             G7     C                   G7          C       G7        C
Never had nothin’, no one to care, That’s why I seem to have more than my share,
D7                    Fm6                 C        G7             C
I got a woman crazy for me, She’s funny that way.
Fm6                                            C
I can see know other way and no better plan,
D7                                          G7
End it all and let her go to some better man;
C              G7            C          G7            C                  G7                 Gdim
But I’m only human, coward at best, I’m more than certain she’d follow me west,
D7              Fm6                     C        G7            C
I’ve got a woman crazy for me, She’s funny that way.
