

Take My Life, and Let It Be

Frances Havergal & H.A. Cesar Malan

He said to him, "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind. Matthew 22:37

D A D A D A D

1: Take my life and let it be, consecrated, Lord, to thee.

A D G D A D A

Take my moments and my days; let them flow in endless praise,

D A D G D A D

Let them flow in endless praise.

D A D A D A D

2: Take my hands and let them move, at the impulse of thy love.

A D G D A D A

Take my feet and let them be, swift and beautiful for thee,

D A D G D A D

Swift and beautiful for thee.

D A D A D A D

3: Take my voice and let me sing, always, only, for my King.

A D G D A D A

Take my lips and let them be, filled with messages from thee,

D A D G D A D

Filled with messages from thee.

D A D A D A D

4: Take my silver and my gold; not a mite would I withhold.

A D G D A D A

Take my intellect and use, Every power as thou shalt choose,

D A D G D A D

Every power as thou shalt choose.

D A D A D A D

5: Take my will and make it thine; it shall be no longer mine.

A D G D A D A

Take my heart it is thine own; it shall be thy royal throne,

D A D G D A D

It shall be thy royal throne.

D A D A D A D

6: Take my love; my Lord, I pour, at thy feet its treasure store.

A D G D A D A

Take myself, and I will be ever, only, all for thee,

D A D G D A D

Ever, only, all for thee.