Tubas In The Moonlight

Roger Ruskin Spear 1969 www.ukesterbrown.com (1st note sung is B)

D6 A#7 D
Through the twilight I can hear the humming of a Melancholy Tune*
(Hmmmm)
D6 A#7 D
Ah, the memories that still linger, I thank you Mister Moon
(Hmmmm)
E7 A7 E7 A7
And although I've never smiled, Winter, Summer, Autumn, too
D6 B E7 A7 A7#5
Now, here's one tune to remind me, Why I feel so blue

Chorus:
D Dm6
Tubas in the moonlight, playing for me all night
D B7
Tell me what I want to hear
E7 A7
Am I only dreaming? Am I only scheming?
D Ddim7 Em A7
Stars above me, shining brightly
D D7 G Gm
Why can't she be, sitting here beside me?
D B E7 A7 D A#7 A7
Tubas in the moonlight, Will bring my loved one home
(Instrumental play chorus twice and then end on End

End
D B E7 A7 D6 (Db6 D6)
Tubas in the moonlight, Will bring my loved one home

*I changed this lyric word to “Tune”- the original lyric was “coon”
For more info, read about “Coon Songs” on wikipedia