Heat Wave

Irving Berlin 1933 (1st note sung is an "A") practice sheet from ukesterbrown.com

D#	A #7		D#
A heat wave	e blew right int	o town la	st weel	k
	A#7		D
She came f	rom the island	of Martin	nique
	A #7		D#
The can-ca	n she dances v	vill make	you fry	1
	A#7	D	7
The can-ca	n is really the r	eason w	hy
	_
G		D7
We're havir	ng a heat wave	a tropica	l heat v	vave
G	G 7	C	Cm	G	A 7	7 D7	G
The temper	ature's rising i	t isn't su	rprising	she certa	ainly ca	n can-	can	l
-		D7		•	•
She started	I the heat wave	by lettin	a her s	eat wave
G	G7	C	Cm		G	A 7	D 7	' G (	G7
And in sucl	h a way that the	custom		that she	certainl
	7 C		C D7		G	CD
	natomy made th			to ninety	•		_
G	incomy manage in	D7		,			-
	ng a heat wave			VAVA
G	G7	a tropica C		Cm	G	,	١7	D 7	G
	_	_
THE way the	at she moves t	ial liieiii	ioiiietei	hioves s	ווכ נכונ	anny C	aii (	Jaii-	call

I have seen versions where the phrase "letting her feet wave" was used to be more modest I suppose.