

Hum Your Troubles Away

Cliff Friend and Harry Woods 1926 ukesterbrown.com (First note sung is C)

Verse 1:

C Cdim C
One little raindrop, two little raindrop seem to worry you
G7 C D7 G7
Gee, but you feel blue, but remember do
C Cdim C
That one little sunbeam, two little sunbeam'll chase them from the sky
D7 G7
Tho' if it rains, or if it shines here's what you oughta try:

Chorus:

C
Just keep on hum, hum, hum, hummin' all the while
G7
And soon there'll come, come, come, come a little smile
And you'll be hap-hap-hap-hap-hap-hap-happy all the day
And soon your troub-troub-troub-troub-troub-troub-troubles roll away. C
C7
So when you wake-wake-wake-wake-up in the morning
Dm D7 G7
Don't lay in bed and dread the skies of gray
C G7 C Cdim C
Because they can't always be blue; so when things go wrong with you
G7 C
Just hum-hum-hum-hum-hum your troubles away!

Verse 2:

C Cdim C
One little dark cloud, two little dark cloud in your sky you'll find
G7 C D7 G7
You'll think that fate's unkind, but just bear in mind
C Cdim C
That one little rainbow, two little rainbow makes your gray sky blue
D7 G7
So if it rains or if it shines here's what you oughta do:
